

September 6

Steve Cuss

PRIMARY SCRIPTURE:

Mark 16

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

1. Read this passage together through verse 8. What strikes you or stands out to you?
2. What is your take that the first evangelists were women? Without these women we may not know the resurrection?
3. Read the account of Peter in the courtyard after he betrays Jesus. What expression do you imagine on Jesus' face?
4. Read the account where Peter and Jesus talk on the beach and Jesus asks three times, 'do you love me?' What strikes you about that?
5. The women were 'trembling and bewildered.' How do you relate?
6. Mark leaves us in the empty tomb with these bewildered women. The implication is, 'now you go and carry this message.' How might you carry it this week?