“Corporate worship is designed to lure you away from your little kingdom of one and enthrall you again [or for the first time] with God’s kingdom of glory and grace.”

Paul Tripp

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Through this series, we have talked about what worshipping God means in our daily lives. What are the ways that you relate to God the most? In what ways do you worship God? If you are not sure what you believe, what does worship look like for you? What have you noticed about other people who worship God?
2. This week we talked about the importance of worshipping God both in a corporate setting and in our homes. Do you have any memories of beautiful experiences that came from worshipping God at a church or with a community of other people? What are some hangups that you may have about worshipping God with a church?
3. Music is a beautiful, powerful expression of emotions and the depths of humanity. Emilie shared a story about a song that her friend created, and that when she listened to it, unexpected emotions were brought to the surface. What is a song that does that same thing for you?
4. What would your ideal mealtime routine look like? How many days a week for a family or group dinner? What is getting in the way of making your ideal mealtime a reality?
5. What is your normal approach to communion? What do you think it would look like to take the reflections from communion during our services and apply them to our everyday meals?
6. Please pray with and for each other this week in your groups.
